

2010 Spring Networking Session

Leading in a Complex System: What Keeps Nurse Leaders Awake at Night
Presented by Gail Wolfe

Gail Wolf, Professor of Nursing Leadership at the University of Pittsburgh, will explain why the old way of managing is sabotaging the future. She will introduce key concepts for successful leadership in the 21st century, describe ten potential leadership traps, as well as discuss tips for success in leading today's health care organizations. Don't miss this must-attend networking session!
